

Senior housing would be good fit for land

I think a good use for some of the District 99 land in Woodridge would be as slightly upscale senior housing. Seniors could walk to the Community Center, the post office and the library. They would also be on the Pace bus line.

The rest of the land could be left as open, green space.

Lee Murphy-Olson

Woodridge