

Downers South students take home state honors

The Family and Consumer Sciences teachers at Downers Grove South High School have recognized the following students for their achievements April 21 and 22 in Springfield: Lindsay Liss of Downers Grove and Sara Sobotka of Woodridge took first place in preschool storytelling; Jennifer Horeni of Downers Grove placed second in interior design; Matt DuBois of Woodridge won first place in salad demonstration; Kylene Howard of Downers Grove took first place in cake decorating; Stephanie Drope of Woodridge placed first in cookie design; and Greg Micek of Downers Grove took first place and received recognition for outstanding preschool lesson.

Christian school names Leamy valedictorian

Cincinnati Hills Christian Academy senior Alexandra Leamy, granddaughter of Downers Grove residents Arthur and Rita Leamy, has been named valedictorian. She also was a finalist in the National Merit Scholarship Competition. She will attend Trinity University in San Antonio, Texas, in the fall.